Hooray for Handwashing!

It's cool to be clean
You may be clean and tidy when you go out to play, but when you come inside again, just wash those germs away.

Use the loo, then use your brain, and wash those germs straight down the drain.

Germs are very tiny, germs are very small. You can get them on your hands and not see them at all.